

SOMERS EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Contact person:

Teresa Mancini (860) 508-8509

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release:

Come stimulate your taste buds at the Somers Education Foundation's "Taste of Excellence" on Saturday, October 16, 2010 at the Knights of Columbus in Somers, CT. This wine and beer tasting, presented by Kaman's Wines and Spirits of Somers and The Olde Burnside Brewing Co., brewers of Ten Penny Ale, will be held from 7 p.m.-10 p.m.

Among the 20 different wines and many beers available to taste are Cellar 8 Pinot Noir, Chateau St. Jean Sonoma Chardonnay, Greg Norman Shiraz, Matua Sauvignon Blanc, Snapdragon Riesling, Sterling Vintners Collection Meritage, Sterling Organic Chardonnay, Ten Penny Ale and much more.

The "Taste" also will include finger foods provided by local eateries and also includes coffees and desserts from nationally known Starbucks and the Cheesecake Factory.

The Somers Education Foundation is a not-for-profit organization supporting innovative projects and programs that enhance student learning in Somers public schools.

Tickets for this popular event may be purchased at Kaman's Wines and Spirits in Geissler's Plaza, at Somersvillage Gifts and Gourmet Baskets, Somers, by calling 860-749-7025 or through any Somers Education Foundation Board member. Tickets are $30 per person. For more information about the Foundation, call Lou Bachetti at 860-749-7025 or go to www.SEFONLINE.org.